

Workshop of potters Valdis and Olga Pauliņi

Craft

The kindness of these people and the spirit of Latgale will enchant everyone! In the stories of the ceramist, traditions intertwine with modern humor. Here, visitors have the opportunity to take part in the entire ceramic-making process from start to finish, try their hand at pottery, and participate in firing the kiln. You can also purchase various types of ceramic products, souvenirs, and garden ceramics. Activities are available individually, for families, school groups, and large groups. Excursions can be arranged, but you are also welcome to drop by the workshop to buy the ceramist's works.

In 2014, the ceramists were awarded the honorary badge "Latvian Heritage".
