

Geļenova manor and park

Geļenova park is located on the shore of Bicāni lake.

The beautiful park has 23 types of exotic trees and shrubs, and it 8 ha large. The history of the park originates from 1890s, when it belonged to a landlord who built the park in honour of his daughter Helēna. A manor and its related buildings where located in the park territory. The manor resembled renaissance style, but nowadays only the foundation and a few buildings remain.
